How do you organize a football game in five steps?

STEP 1

Pick a slot on the pitch

Choose a pitch on the map or add your own, and see which times are available.

How venue schedules work →

STEP 2

Set up the game details

Pitch, date, time, format, gameplay, sign-up and entry rules, publishing. Then put it on autopilot.

How recurring games work →

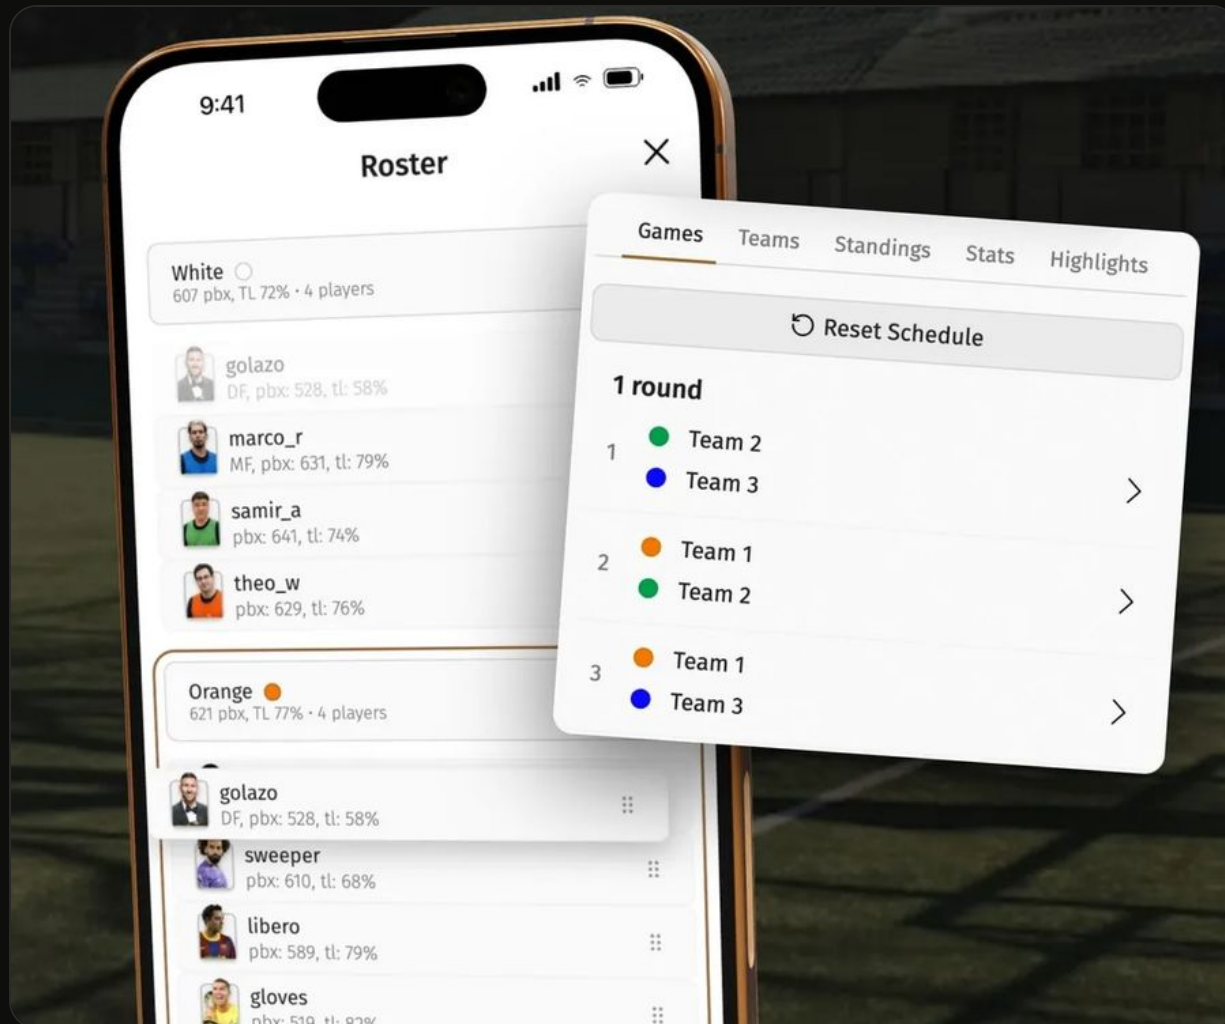

STEP 3

Gather players or teams

Share the link in your chat or let Playbox fill the empty spots with matched players.

How to get your first five players →

STEP 4

Get ready for the game

Balance teams with the app and generate the match schedule in one tap.

How balanced teams work →

STEP 5

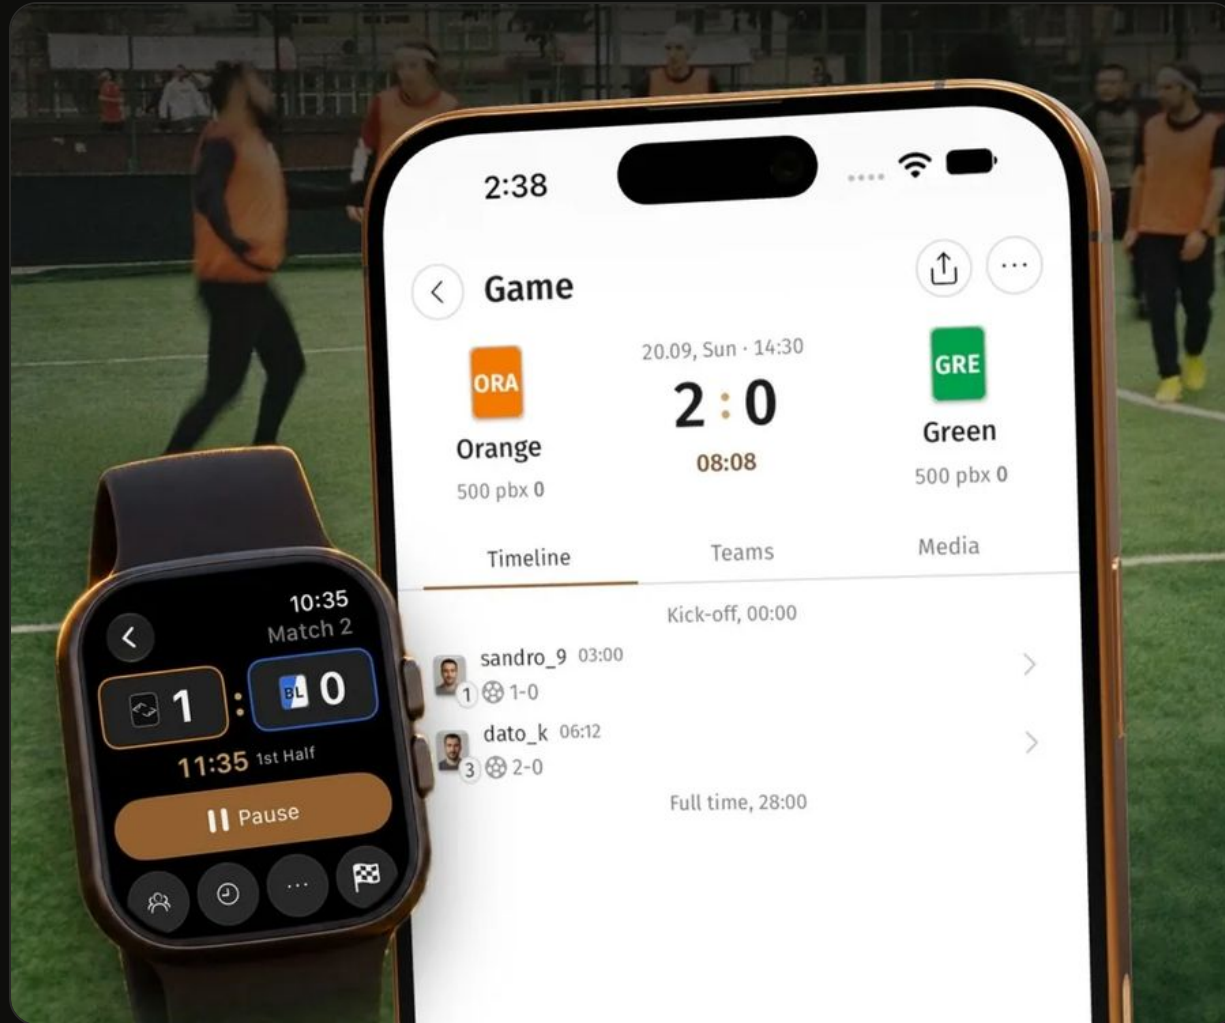

Enjoy the game

Play, host or both. Everything else is already done.

How do you keep players coming back every week?

None of these are required for a game to happen. They are what turns a one-off game into a weekly habit, and a group of players into a community.

BONUS 1

Track and confirm results

Log goals, highlights and subs from your phone or Apple Watch, then confirm.

How to record results →

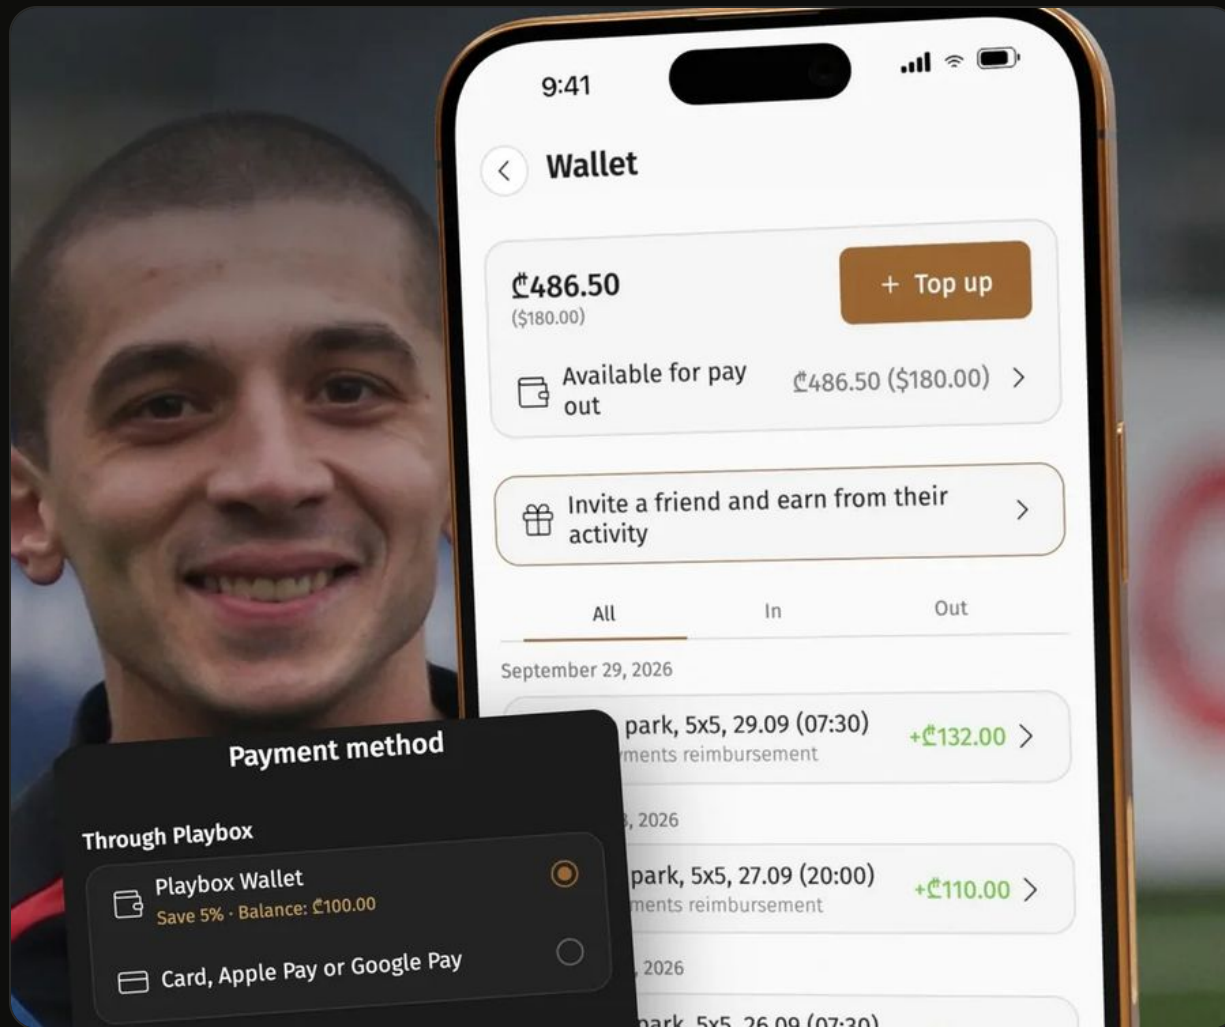

BONUS 2

Stream the game

Customizable graphics, go live to the Playbox channel, post-game highlights with timecodes.

How to add a live stream →

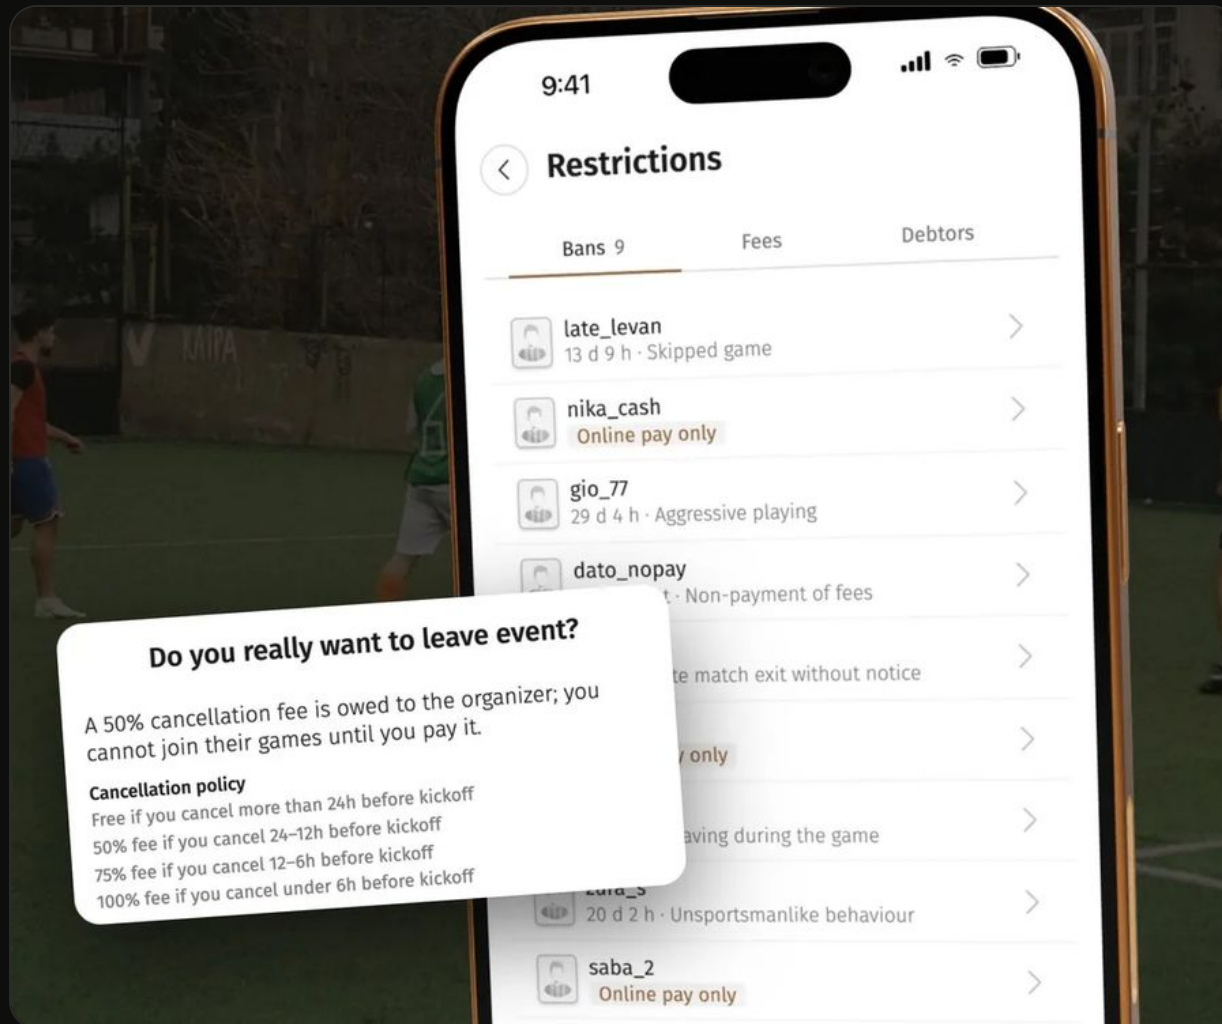

BONUS 3

Get paid online

Players pay online before the game.
Withdraw any time.

How you receive payments →

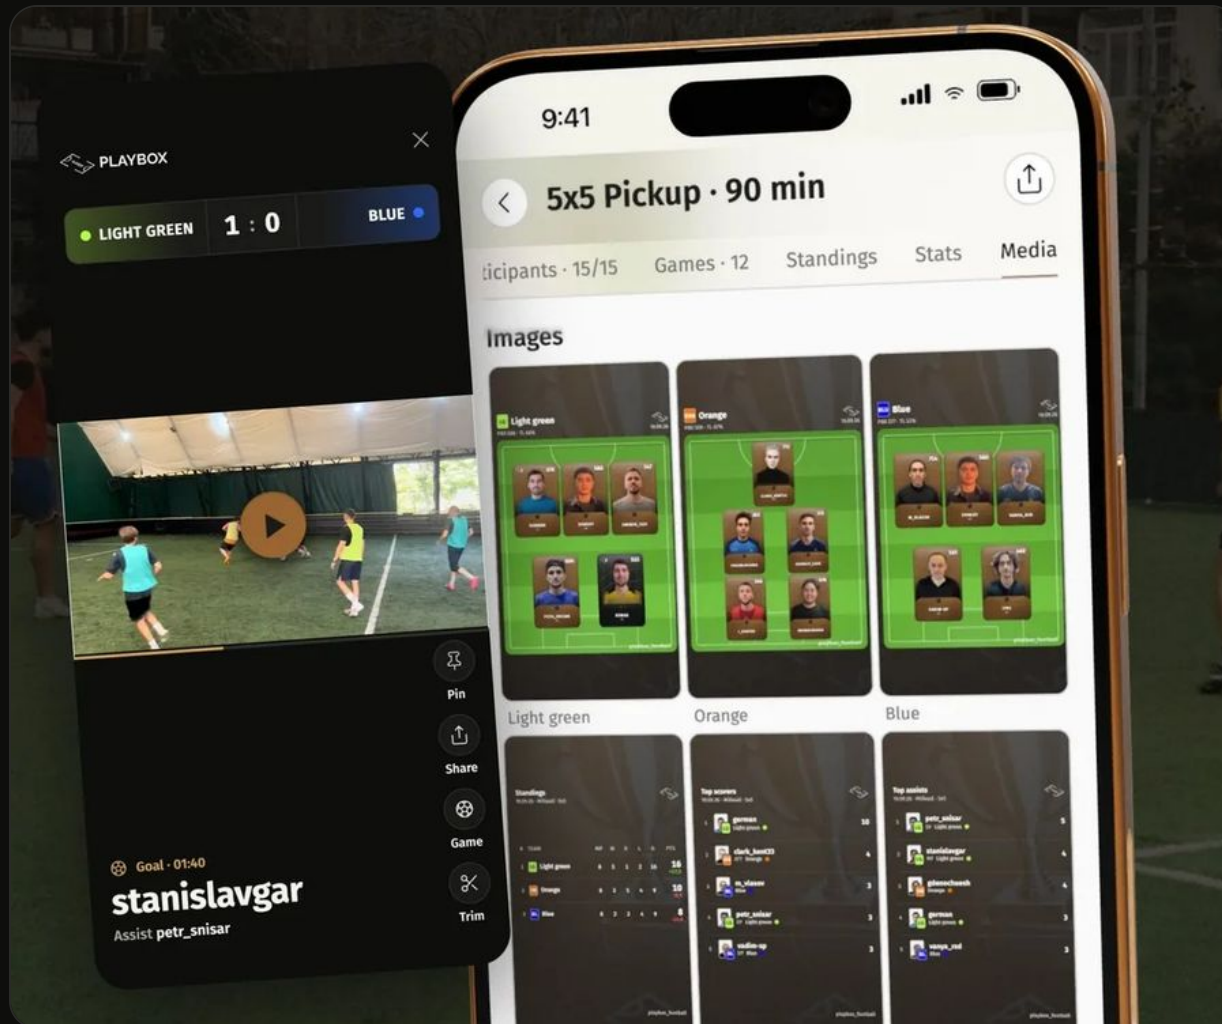

BONUS 4

Keep the game fair

Ban, restrict and charge a late cancellation fee.

How to set a cancellation policy →

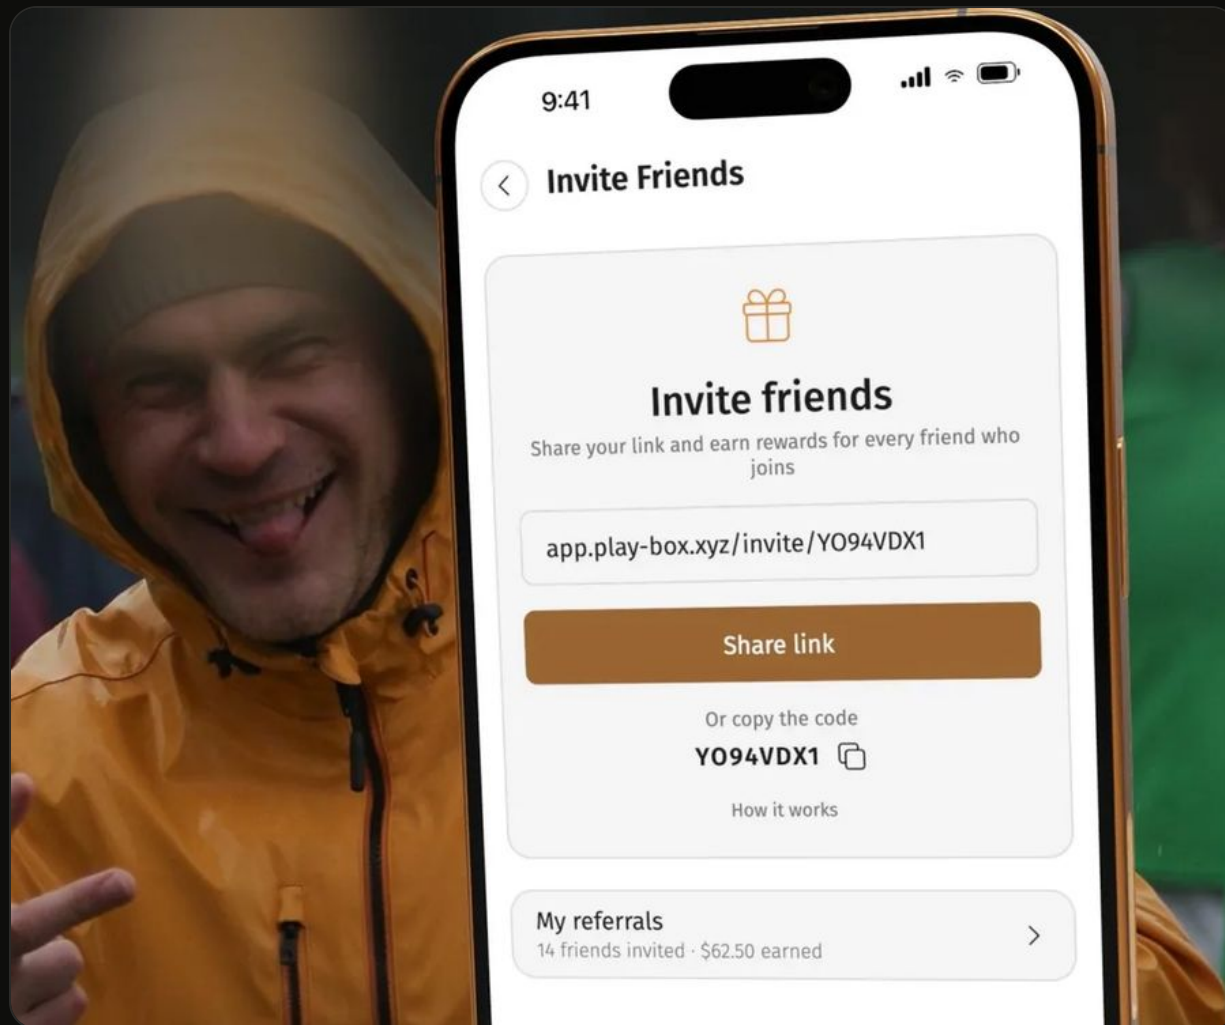

BONUS 5

Share content from the game

Goal clips and result cards, ready for social media.

BONUS 6

Bring your community

Invite your people and earn from their activity. Payouts go to your wallet.

BONUS 7

Build your branded community

Your logo, members, games and leaderboards. Everything under your name.

What communities are →

We build Playbox so every game happens and players keep coming back.

More games on the pitch, more people playing them. Week after week.
